RUSSIANS SHOOT DOWN
OUR BRAVE SOLDIERS.

(Special Cable Despatch to The Evening World.)

(Copyright, 1900, by The Press Publishing Company, New York World.)

CHEFOO, Aug. 9, via Shanghai, Aug. 13.—A terrible mistake occurred at the taking of Yangtsung.

Russian artillery opened fire on the American troops. Before the mistake was discovered many American soldiers had been killed or wounded by the Russian shells.

Part of the casualties to the Fourteenth Infantry was the result of the Russian fire.

The Fourteenth took part in the attack on the Chinese trenches. As the Chinese fled the regiment entered and occupied one of the Chinese positions.

A Russian battery some distance off did not notice the movement. It opened fire on the position and planted shells among the American troops.

The Russians were quickly notified and ceased their fire.

Americans captured the Chinese works. Their casualties are estimated at seventy altogether. Most of these are in the Fourteenth Infantry.

The long march and the heat played havoc with the troops.

Forty per cent. of the Ninth Regiment were completely exhausted as the result of the march and the fighting that followed.

The allied force is resting at Yangtsung for two or three days.

Then it is a rush forward on Peking.

The Chinese are demoralized by their defeats and no rest or chance to recover from their demoralization is to be given them by the allied troops.

John H. Springer, the lessee of the Grand Opera-House, at Twenty-third street and Eighth avenue, and Eugene Robinson, of 340 West Forty-ninth street, had a wordy row on the Rialto this afternoon and waxed so warm that they began fighting.

A big crowd of actors, actresses and other people gathered at Thirty-seventh street and Broadway and watched the fight. Policemen rushed his way through the crowd and arrested the two fighters. They were arraigned in Jefferson Market Court and Magistrate Hogan adjourned their cases until Wednesday, paroling both men.

Regarding their trouble, Robinson declared that Springer called him a thief, and Springer said he was hit without provocation.

Governor Roosevelt Demands that the Mayor Answer The World's Charges in the Ice Trust Scandal.

Gov. Roosevelt, after an hour's conference with Attorney-Gen. Davies, at the Republican National Headquarters, made the following statement to an Evening World reporter at 1.35 o'clock this afternoon:

"The World's charges against Mayor Van Wyck in connection with the Ice Trust are so specific and so serious as to warrant action, unless the Mayor can explain.

"The World's amended complaint, which I received a week ago last Saturday, will be submitted to the Mayor in two or three days, and I shall allow him to make answer.

"On the value of his answer will depend, of course, my decision whether to appoint a Commissioner to take testimony as in the case of District Attorney Gardiner."

HISTORY OF THE WORLD'S CHARGES.

On June 2 last The World presented to Gov. Roosevelt at Oyster Bay specific charges against Mayor Van Wyck, charging him with having violated his oath of office and transgressed the provisions of the charter.

The principal charge was that he was interested financially in the American Ice Company, from which the city buys large quantities of ice.

Continuing, The World's charges averred that the Mayor had, in consideration of a big block of trust stock, vetoed measures for dock improvements which he at first had approved, but which, if carried out, would open chances for competition against the Trust.

On the witness stand the Mayor confessed to receiving $250,000 worth of the stock, paying for it in notes which he took up when his dividends fell due.

The dividends accruing to Mayor Van Wyck from this transaction—and according to his own confession he began drawing them immediately—amounted to twice his salary as Chief Magistrate of this city.

The law prohibits officials from entering into any contract with any company which has or may have dealings with the city government.

The Mayor's veto rendered it impossible for any competing company to get ice by way of the rivers and practically gave to the trust a monopoly of the ice trade.

At first it was thought the Governor would suspend the Mayor from office in a summary manner, after his confession of guilt.

All of these facts, with minor specifications, were in the first draft of the charges laid before the Governor. Recently the Citizens' petition was amended and again submitted to Gov. Roosevelt.
